Holgate Big Reg (5%)

Malt! That's what this beer says. Also known as a Vienna Lager or Marzen Beer (March Beer) this style is a traditionally brewed German lager combining an abundance of Vienna and Munich malts to create a deep red or burnished copper Lager - full of biscuity malt goodness and full bodied caramel flavours. A warming alcohol level and light bitterness make this malty treat a great food all-rounder, and an all-round favourite for both beer enthusiasts and the less adventurous alike.

Wicked Elf Witbier (5%)

This is The Little Brewing Company's version of a Belgian White Ale, a style brewed by monks in the Middle Ages. This beer is made using 50/50 wheat and barley malts and is 'bottle conditioned' A light ale, with a lovely complexity of malt, citrus and spicy flavours, balanced with a refreshing bitterness from the hops and curacao. Treat like a white wine and match with white meats, but particularly excellent with seafood and Asian cuisine. Has enough residual sweetness to match with citrus-based (lemon/lime/orange) desserts. Highly drinkable Belgian.

White Rabbit (5.2%)

A dark ale which is essentially malt driven but with the firm bitterness of whole hops to ensure balance. Subtle yet delicious, with flavour built around yeast that is allowed to go wild! The dark ale is brewed using open fermenters, custom made in Europe to combine traditional methods with White Rabbit thinking. White Rabbit Dark Ale is a beer with complex flavours and a handsome character. Beautiful creamy beer 5.2% at $10.00
